We get information of the arrival of ships
from S.C.O either verbally or through telephone message intimating the time of departure of the police launch
with the boarding party usually from Taktaghat.

We repeat this message to I.B. who also sends down
one of their officers with us.

On the particular day (22.2.47) in question we got information of the arrival of two ships 'S.S. Takasang' and 'S.S. Kwaisang', when there was a general search for C.P.'s all over the city by S.B. & I.B. officers and as such no S.I's of S.B. were available. A.S.I. Indul Ali Dewani was detailed to attend the ship 'S.S. Kwaisang'. As regards the other ship 'S.S. Takasang' it was arranged with I.B.
to send one of their officers on board the aforesaid ship.

Your letter of the 14th instant. I received on my return to Calcutta. I was away from town. Yes Mr. Sarat Bose rushed to press with his suggestions to the INA. Conference. That was not only premature but worse than that. I am afraid you could always rely on him to spoil good things by impatient haste you cannot rescue him from his advisers.

I have given deep thoughts to your scheme which is not very far from the plan, I had in mind. However certain amendments are necessary which will require personal discussion. I am therefore eager to meet you and am willing to go to Lahore for the purpose as I told you. I am also eager to meet Mohan Singh, Sardul Singh Kaveeshar and others you would like me to meet. Bengal politics are in a hopeless mess - no leadership. We must plan wisely and act firmly. awaiting your reply. hope you are well.

A short note on Bimalendu Ghosh s/o Bepin Behari of 38/2 Durga Charan Mitra Street, Calcutta (born in 1907.)

.....

After graduating from the Bengal Govt. Engineering College, Sibpur, Bimalendu Ghosh went to Rangoon in 1932 and worked there as a manager of Shalimar Tar Products Ltd Company Ltd. and Shalimar Paint Co. till February '42. After the Japanese occupation of Burma he started a chemical and hardware business at Barr street early in September 1942. According to his own statement he was arrested by the Japanese in July 1943 on suspicion of transmitting messages to India and spreading anti-Japanese propaganda. He was kept under detention for 6 months at Cushing camp and was eventually released on the personal intervention of Subhas Chandra Bose, on signing a bond promising cooperation with the Nippon Army and the Indian National Army. At the suggestion of Subhas Chandra Bose, he offered his services and his entire property to the Indian Independence League. He went to Maymyo as a civil Engineer with a party of 150 members of the Azad Hind Dal. In September 1944 he returned to Rangoon and joined the I.I.L. For short periods, he acted as the Secretary of the Supply Board, Secretary of Vegetable Production and a member of the A.R.P. branch of the League. Early in May 1945 he joined the Allied Royal Engineers and joined the C.A.S(B) as Local Industries officer. He has been classified 'white' by the military.

and has plunged head-first into his job. He goes from 6 a.m. to will 'ease off anon'. He finds things very slack, says he. I told him not to get the reputation of a slave-driver, or an old woman.

Gopalpur.
25th March, 1947.

My dear Bardhan Saheb,

"Jai Hind", I can hardly express my overwhelming joy for receiving your sympathetic note of the 18th inst. I am so sorry for keeping myself silent so long. I should have written to you before you write to me. But I have been put up in such a critical position that I could not even make time to drop a letter to you.

The rumour which has spread out, has after all turned into fact. It is I who am solely responsible for this mishap. I too agree with your opinion that "what is happening is best for all", So I do never take it as failure but as blessing of God. You have requested me not to follow the policy of Mahatma Gandhi. I wonder how you think of it that a follower of "Subhash" will observe the policy of Gandhiji?

At present I am suffering from stomach pains, and am undergoing treatment of a native physician that is a "Kaviraj". As the physician passes remarks that it will take at least a month to be completely cured of this pain. So I shall not be able to betake myself over these before 15th of April. The news of the camp being closed made me a bit anxious. Will you please let me know whether I shall be able to secure a job if I come over there within a fortnight, if not please instruct me what am I to do now. What do all of you do at present; or what have you decided to do in future? What about your proposed business? Do not forget to take me as a partner.

Do not be worried about your belongings which I brought along with me. All those will be handed over to you as soon as I reach there. Today I am remitting a sum of Rs 50/- to my beloved "mashi". I am very sorry, rather ashamed, that I could not keep my word of repaying his money in due time. Please tell him to write to me. As I have nothing more to write today I intend to close my petty letter with best love and wish to you all. Please convey my "Jai Hind" to Halder, Mazumder, Mashi and Chakravorty Sahas. Hope you are in the best enjoyment of life and health. Awaiting an early reply. "Jai Hind".

Yours in love,

Sd/- Illegible. (N. K. Das)?

Letter contains similiar information regarding Rege Jay Kumor, as in 346/FBI/47.
Rs: 50/- was lent to him to pay his bill at the Chinese Restaurant where they kept his Identity Card in lieu of the money, as related by R. Jay Kumor. He promised to return the money by a despatch rider when he returned to his camp. It now appears he has met with a plane accident and the address of Mrs: E.H. Stracey was found on him. R. Jay Kumor took the address also of R.A. Stracey, I.C.S. in Calcutta and said he would meet Cyril Stracey at the Aerodrome when he gets out of the plane at Calcutta.

My dear Gurudeb,

Received your letter in due time, but I am a bit late in response due to my delatory habits.

However I ~~am~~ also met the person suddenly one day whom you met, and in course of conversation I found life in him, which I never heard from his tongue. Whenever I thought of going to you, struggle arose between conscience and mind and after all mind having been defeated made me to stop going to you. That was the reason for not going to you. The Tram service will start soon and taking advantage of it I shall go one day and talk about him.

New Delhi, the 7th May 1947.

My dear Littlewort,

Reference your endorsement No.2936-37/C4/2/45-ANP dated the 19th April 1947.

2. The general policy with regard to movements of persons from territory lately occupied by the enemy was recently reviewed by the Government of India. It was decided that the exchange of intelligence about such persons (especially about those who took a prominent part in INA affairs) was of value to the security organizations concerned and should, for that reason, be continued.

Yours sincerely,

My dearest Cyril,

Please destroy those papers about the "Forward Bloc" etc. etc. You better leave all that stuff alone and just go on with what work you have. Give up all Politics and don't worry over India too much. Everything will right itself in time with God's help.

Hope you are getting on like "wild fire" with your work and that you like it and that your superiors have found the right man in you. God Bless and help you in all.

Russel Stracey and his wife Kay are here on their way to the U.K. Lucky folk - all paid by the B.O.C.

Write to D. I heard from her. She is leaving in May for the U.K.

Love,

My dear Mother,

..... You will be surprised to hear that Cyril has sent in his resignation to Mistri's Airways; he says he didn't like the way the Company was run. It is his own business, but I think its a pity that he has done this. Don't mention anything about it Mother till he writes and tells you himself.

CONTENTS.

My dearest Mums,

Well Mums, another shift and another new address for you to remember! We shifted in here on the 1st May. We are perched up in the sky on the 4th floor of a mansion on busy Park Street, and are settling down to life here. Ralf has rented two more suites which he has furnished and hopes to keep paying guests, so that he can make a little money. Phyllis, he and the boys have been working hard on them and now they are really nice and ready for anyone to come in. With luck, they ought to get Rs: 700/- p.m. from a couple - board and lodging.

I am not happy with my job. I have had to work uphill all the time, with insufficient staff and difficult passengers to deal with. My bosses at the Head Office have neglected this station, with the result that the staff became disinterested and careless. I have written asking for them to accept my resignation. I heard they didn't want me to go, but I've written in a stiff report that I shall work on for a couple of months more only on condition they give me the staff I want and pay more attention to things than they have done hitherto. It is a pity of course, all this, especially as it is my first job in 'civvy street'.

I have applied for the Foreign Service. Let us see what happens! I have made up my mind about my future. It is to be either Government Service or I shall be on my own, on the land or in my own business. No more employment in Commercial concerns. One never knows what one is letting oneself in for, in such organisations.

Sd/- CYRIL.

Personal. Cyril, the writer is Cyril J. Stracey of the I.N.A. He has changed his address from 15 Ray Mansion, 10/4 Elgie Rd. to 77/B Park Street, 4th floor. So long as he has been working in the firm of Ministry Airways, but is disgusted of the job there. He has applied for Foreign Service. However, if interception may note this, it will be of help. Some information correct.

We are intercepting his correspondence at 7/4, Middle-ten Rd., The present address is also noted & included in the list sent to Govt. for interception. Act.

and urged the creation of a strong agitation against it. To divide India, they consider is to play into the hands of British imperialism. Resolutions were passed
(1) condemning the British policy of dividing India as anti-national and helpful to exploitation, (2) opining that the presence of the third party fostered communal troubles, (3) demanding the immediate withdrawal of British troops from India and the complete transfer of power to the people, (4) urging the people to form a socialist State with adult franchise, joint electorates and right of self-determination as its fundamentals, and (5) strongly condemning the Bengal Ministry for its reactionary and anti-national policy and urging its replacement by an all-party socialist Government.

DEB NATH DAS, while tracing the history
of the British in this country observed that the British wanted to keep the Indian people into a state of subservience for all time, but their attempts had been foiled
by personages like RAJA RAM MOHAN RAY
the Emperor Bahadur Shah, the Rani of Jhansi and others down to GANDHI. The division of India into so many hostile camps is their latest political stunt to ~~xxxx~~ maintain their stronghold over India and this should be resisted. NETAJI'S ideal of driving away the British first should be adopted by all. PROF. HIREN MUKHARJI (CPI) observed that the clamour for partitioning India originated from the false notion that the British would quit by June, 1948.
Rather than quitting India the British are seeking to entrench themselves
solidly in the Pakistan and Princesthan areas.

22.5.47. (a) The question of maintaining the unity and integrity of the Indian National Army, which is described as a symbol of Indian nationalism and the greatest creation and achievement of "Netaji" SUBHAS CHANDRA BASU, is the ~~xxx~~ principal reason for SARAT CHANDRA BASU'S (ESP) opposition to the ever-growing Bengal partition movement. BASU is of the opinion that he cannot afford to split up the I.N.A. by identifying himself with the communal cry of partition of Bengal, even though his leadership among the Hindus of Bengal may be at stake. For similar reasons, it is reported, the members of the B.V. Group and Sri Sangha are supporting Sarat Chandra Basu in his anti-partition move.

BALDEO SINGH GREWAL read out another address of welcome in which, inter alia, he stated that it was only due to MOHAN SINGH that the British had fixed a date to quit India. In reply MOHAN SINGH observed that India is not free today, because of Japan's treachery and refusal to help the I.N.A. at the end. Referring to the situation in the country he said that the British machinations are causing communal riots with a view to strengthening their hold on India. The British will not quit India by June 1948. He also remarked that the division of India will lead to constant disturbances, only to justify the existence of the British Military in India. He appealed to the Hindus and Sikhs to unite.

SUDHIR RAY CHAUDHURI (Mayor) who presided, regretted their inability to give a fitting reception due to the critical situation in the city. Law and order has become unknown and murder, arson and loot are the order of the day. Recalling MOHAN SINGH'S services to the I.N.A., he said that the I.N.A. had shown how Indians of all communities can fight shoulder to shoulder for freedom. MOHAN SINGH, replying, praised Bengal as the birthplace of Indian nationalism and of a patriot like "Netaji". He characterised MR. CHURCHILL as the greatest enemy of India. Referring to the recent statement of MR. ATTLEE he remarked that the British are again playing their old game of "divide and rule". He condemned the Muslim League for its reactionary activities. He supported the partition move and deplored the cry of MR. JINNAH that if Bengal and the Punjab are partitioned there will be civil war. He urged the people to fight Pakistan and to be prepared to pay the price of freedom. The President and ASHUTOSH LAHRI earlier garlanded MOHAN SINGH on behalf of the Calcutta Corporation Employees Association and the Bengal Provincial Hindi Mahasabha respectively.

Please convey my Jai Hind to all our friends and remember me to them. Here in the village, I have started an organisation known as

To satisfy them I have to undergo immense difficulties. yesterday there was band for the parade. Do not mistake this to be in B. Barua. All these are taking place in Birampur. I want to create a new spirit among them before I leave.

Do you think all these should be notified to any organisation? If so please let me know. Please discuss the matter with some responsible source.

As regards fruits - yes I am enjoying mango + jack fruit. Why don't you come down please? Do try to come. Hope to hear from you soon.

We are fine and trust the same
